We come to ASU seeking the college experience. "The best years of our lives" we are told — therefore we pursue a fulfilling four years. No one easily defines college life and everything it entails, but our experience and memories leave an indelible impression etched in our minds. Perhaps the contribution of little things express it best. Who you meet, where you meet, and how you meet them.

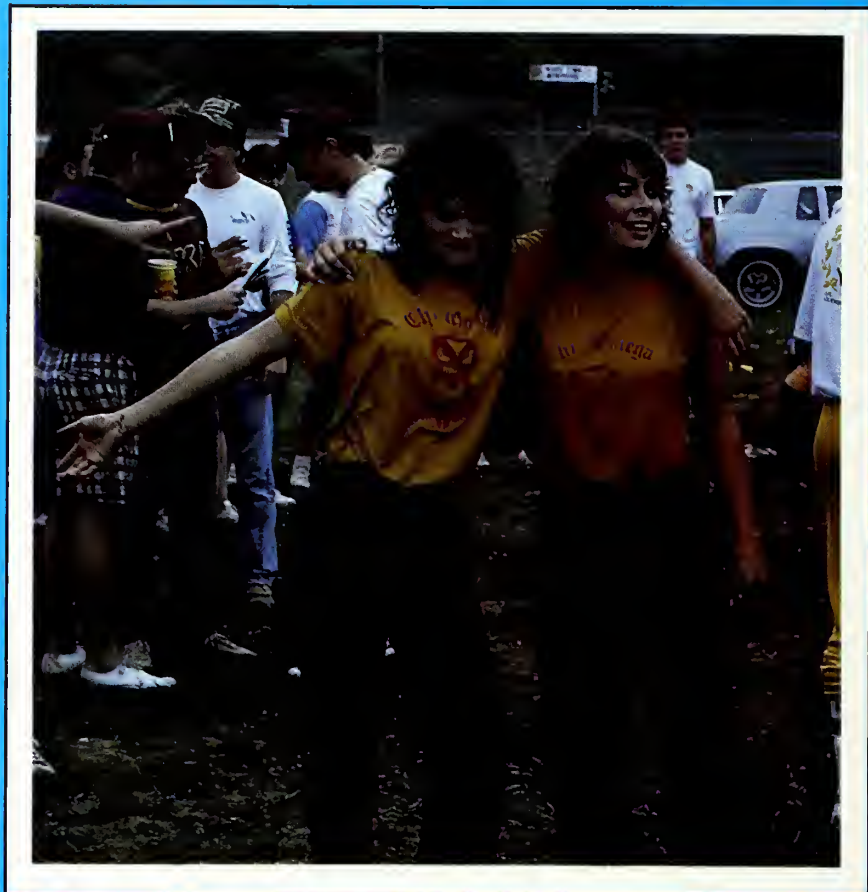

This is the beginning place where many lifelong friendships begin. Friendships discovered through the day-to-day routines that are often taken for granted. Few realize the influence this time brings. Years later we will hear a familiar statement and look back to these years; our protection from the real world with a subtle air of optimism. It is this time that gives us direction for the future and a longing for the past.

ASU CELEBRATES 75th ANNIVERSARY

75 YEARS OF TEACHING, RESEARCH AND SERVICE

DIAMOND JUBILEE

STATE AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL

Arkansas State has grown from a small district agricultural school into a university. Today it serves not only the entire geographic region, but also the international community.

It initially trained high school graduates in modern techniques of farming and rural economics, while providing a general education. Today there are nine separate colleges, the Graduate School, and an Independent Military Science Department.

Outstanding leadership and support through the decades have enabled the institution to survive economic difficulties and enrollment fluctuations to become a leading educational force in the state.

This is a story of evolution: growth and change; visions for the future; faith; teaching; research; service.

SPRINGFEST '84 - A SPLASHING SUCCESS

April 11, was a day of fun, games, and music as the campus and local community celebrated Springfest '84.

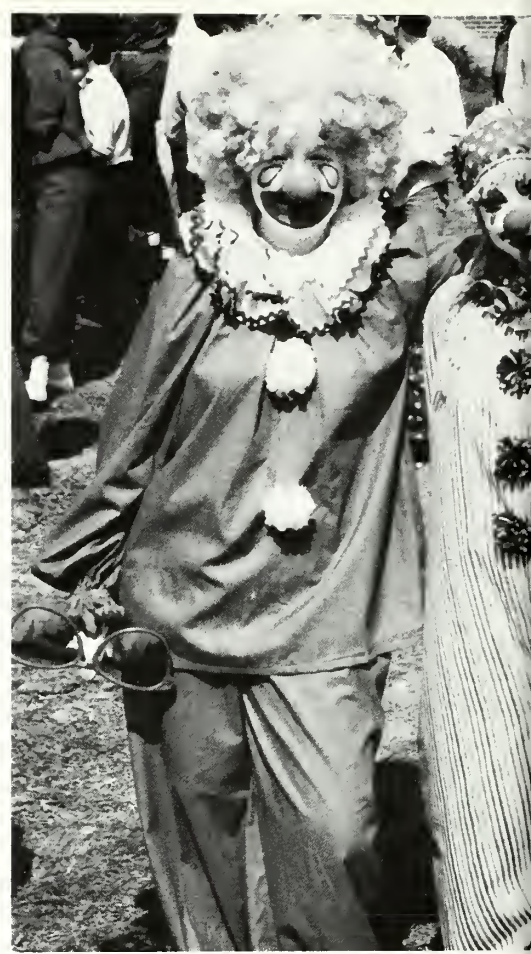

The purpose of the Festival held each Spring, is to raise money for scholarships and to provide an opportunity for students, faculty, administration, and the community to join together. This years Springfest was also a part of the ASU 75th Anniversary Celebration.

CAMPUS LIFE

"Faculty Follies" Becomes Annual Event

Showcasing Faculty Talent

"Faculty Follies" was first presented last year as part of the 75th anniversary celebration coming in with collaboration with the annual Springfest. Because the program was such a success they decided to make it into an annual event.

The faculty did several unique and funny acts much to the pleasure of the audience. There was an all-girl jughead and, storytelling, a Marilyn Monroe impersonation, blues singing, banjo playing, an aerobics farce called "Burn's Bouncing Buns", and a jazz band. During the week of the show students were allowed to vote for their faculty member in a collage of categories such as "Most Preppiest", "Most 60ish", "Most Emotionless" and others.

"XAVION" Sends its Brand of # Rock 'n Soul to ASU

"XAVION" was described as "one of Memphis' hottest rock bands" and apparently U's Union Board along with the rock n' soul co., Hall and Oates thought so. On October 17, the band performed before a "standing-room-only" crowd at the New Pavilion complete with very unique renditions of the Top 40 hits along with their own Top 40 hit, "Eat Your Heart Out", which had rather extensive airplay on MTV. In November XAVION began touring with Hall and Oates on their world tour coming the opening act. Remember you saw them here first.

"We Ain't Afraid of No Blood!"

Remember the phrase from the smash summer hit movie "Ghostbusters" and the hit single by Ray Parker, Jr. about, "I ain't afraid of no ghosts!" On September 6 several ASU students were chanting, "I ain't afraid of no needles!" as they volunteered their blood in a blood drive sponsored by the ASU ROTC. The blood drive was held in the ASU Armory and over 450 students donated blood. This shows you that despite the fears of pain, the needles not being stuck in the vein, and other ludicrous myths, that the Red Cross has a way of knocking these down.

Mickey Gilley "Countrified" ASU

Mickey Gilley, the club owner whose bar "Gilley's" was featured in the movie "Urban Cowboy" came to ASU on October 12 where at 8 p.m. he performed with his "Urban Cowboy Band" in the ASU Fieldhouse before a capacity crowd of over 4,500. The concert was sponsored in part by the ASU Union Board's concert committee. The committee helped to set up the concert and in appreciation they got the chance to view Gilley's bus, where many (as you can tell) took pictures with him.

ASU Honors Club Holds Annual Fall Picnic

The ASU Honors Association held its annual "Welcome Back" picnic on September 6, 1984. The picnic was held in the Old Pavilion where the menu consisted of the usual. Several members of the faculty who teach honors courses were on hand to congratulate the new members with words of advice and humor.

Jimmy Brumley, a sophomore from Marion said that, "Being in the honors courses allows the student to argue, debate, and have discussion on certain issues that directly or indirectly affect us as a whole".

The association has over 30 members and being continually recognized as one of the most influential clubs; peer pressure-wise, on campus.

"STILL & MAX" Provide Hilarious Comedy

"Still and MAX" was a ventriloquist act out of Grand Rapids, Michigan that came to perform at ASU through contacts from the Union Board. The man behind the dummy (Max) was Jimmy Still, a twenty-four year old who has been a professional for over 10 years. This is mildly surprising for some to believe but it's true.

"Still and MAX" have traveled with such comedy greats as George Kirby, Pearl Bailey, and Red Skeleton. About four years ago Still decided to venture into the college circuit. They performed at ASU on October 16 doing teasers for the show at noon and 5 p.m. The two hour show was presented at 7:30 p.m. Despite the weather condition (tornadoes and heavy thunderstorms) they managed to pull in over 100 people in the Indian Lounge.

The Success Renaissance Faire Makes

of the t a Tradition at ASU

After the success of the Renaissance Faire last year, which was sponsored through cooperation between the history department and the fine arts department; it was decided that it would become an annual affair. This year it was held on September 29 at the New Pavilion from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. They expected only about 500 students to attend but over 1,000 attended.

The faire offered jousting, archery, and juggling contests. There was also medieval drama, fortune telling, wandering minstrel shows, madrigal singers, and Shakespearean drama along with the unusual arts and crafts. A contest to select "Lord and Lady of the Faire". However, on a modern note there was a giant screen TV where the Renaissance Faire people could watch an odd game called "football" and view the ASU-Texas A&M game.

"Fashions Unlimited For ASU's Omega

"Fashions Unlimited III", the third annual fall fashion show sponsored by the Omega Psi Phi Sweethearts was held November 8, 1984 in the Carl R. Reng Center Ballroom.

The fashion show had seven contestants, all vying for the first place prize of a trophy and a $75.00 gift certificate from the Colony Shop in Jonesboro. The contestants were Leslie Hoskins, Lisa Gladney, Kimberly Barnes, Gloria Starks, Robyn Stevenson, Kathy Davis, and Jackie Nelson.

Kimberly Barnes was the winner, while Gloria Starks and Kathy Davis received first and second-runner up prizes.

Joan Mondale Visits ASU Campus

Joan Mondale, wife of the Democratic presidential hopeful, Walter Mondale used her trip to the Arkansas State University campus on September 18 to rap the policies of incumbent President Reagan.

Mrs. Mondale criticized Reagan for not revealing a plan to cut the federal deficit. She said the Reagan administration is not leveling with the American public on the real reasons why they cannot lower the deficit.

Tuesday morning during her tour of the ASU museum and several pottery exhibits and the art gallery she then told a group of supporters what her plans are for extending the arts and sciences as First Lady if her husband wins in November. She also toured the greenhouses located by the physical plant and emphasized the importance of soybean research. After her short speech she flew to Little Rock.

COGIC Tells the World About Jesus

The Church of God in Christ (COGIC) club held its spring concert in early April this year. The theme of the concert was "Tellin' the World About Jesus". It consisted of dramatic skit, songs, and a little bit of preaching.

THE OMEGAS AND THE KAPPAS THROW

One of the first things that ASU students look forward to is the annual dances that several fraternities have. A regular meeting place for the dances is the BSA suite which is in the basement of the nursing building. It is there that the sounds of the favorite rap songs and other favorite "jam" is held.

ANNUAL FALL "JAMMIN" DANCES

ASU RENG RIFLES HARD AT WORK

The ASU Reng Rifles have had a very busy and exciting year. They have been ranked top in the state level of competition and are a formidable force with competitors. They make ASU proud. And tell me they don't believe in the NRA.

INDIAN FAMILY DOES MORE THAN THE RAIN DANCE

INTRAMURALS: A FALL TRADITION

Intramurals always mark the beginning of the fall semester at ASU. Ready and willing to leave afternoon classes to go and slip into the old and comfortable warm-ups and sweats; complete with the bruised leather tennis shoes, each student participating becomes the Arthur Ashe, Tony Dorsett, or Mary Decker that they dreamed of being. Even if only for one afternoon. Intramurals are not only ways of attaining campus spirit but they are just plain and simple fun.

ASU'S Spirit Comes In The Form # of Musical Instruments - The Band

Arkansas State University's band, the ASU Marching Indians carried the spirit of ASU whether we lost or won in our competition. From basketball to football we never lost the rhythm of the Indian beat. This year, one of the band's many events were cancelled due to bad weather, including the annual Band Day. It was the first time in over 20 years that it had been cancelled because of inclement weather.

ROTC: THE DISCIPLINING OF ASU

ROTC spells discipline for many military-minded students at ASU. It not only means getting up at 5:30 every Thursday and going through a couple hours of PT (physical training) but of getting ahead in the world. A lot of students scoff at the ROTC program but it's one of the best things that ASU has going for it. It's needed on campus and that's another reason why Heather Lowe, sophomore, of Blytheville gets up every Thursday to do her PT without any regrets. "It's the best thing that ever happened to me," she said.

'BROOKLAND' PERFORMS FOR ASU

"Brookland", a band based here in Jonesboro was receiving quite a bit of exposure for a while. It played at several Union Board dances to more than enthusiastic crowds. It is a band worth seeing twice - and more.

ASU CHEERLEADERS

BECOME

The ASU Cheerleaders have always been good, but never this good. This year they were named one of the Top Ten cheerleading teams in the nation by the NCA (National Cheerleading Association). This is the first time that ASU has ever achieved this honor. And so they help keep this torch of spirit burning ever so brightly.

DEBBIE TURNER OF JONESBORO

Debbie Turner competed in the talent competition of the Miss Arkansas State University Pageant and won the award and then turned around and won the title of Miss ASU Thursday, February 12. Turner, a sophomore from Jonesboro won a $400 scholarship and a chance to compete in the Miss Arkansas Pageant.

EDITOR'S NOTE

It is difficult to write a fitting, original and sufficient thank-you. However, this is the task I am now facing. The past year was one filled with anxiety and pressure in an attempt to complete a massive workload. At times I questioned my decision to edit the yearbook when I already had a full schedule. It has proved worthwhile and I am a better person for doing it.

Tom Manning, as always was the guiding force behind any work being done. His job was sometimes as thankless as the one I assumed yet, he never relents. The final word usually came from Tom along with the final solution.

Without the help of a fine editorial staff, this yearbook would not exist. Ellen, Allen, Mark and David are to be commended. Deadlines were met throughout the year because these people diligently worked towards this end.

K. Todd must be recognized for his guidance as head photographer. His constant attention to detail provided the staff with an endless stream of photographs from his underlings.

Hopefully this book echoes the looks, sentiments, and lifestyles of the college experience. Above all else, memories are the most eternal thing we will receive from ASU. Essence is very difficult to capture, especially in a book. At some time in the future I intend to open this book and relive my college existence.

Finally, personal thanks to my family, Candace, and Julie are in order. They have been the driving force behind any goals I have attained.

Now is the time to move forward to new experiences and a much-needed vacation.
